GUIDELINES FOR BOOK REPORT

The Literacy Intervention Specialist program requires you to write a total of six book reports. These book reports are required to be turned in during the course if you are receiving college credit.

Two of the six book reports must be on specified books. What's Right With Me? Hope for the Dyslexic by Joan Stambaugh is required for Literacy Intervention Specialist Introductory Course. Overcoming Dyslexia by Sally Shaywitz is required for Literacy Intervention Specialist Advanced Course. There is a book list in the front of your manual and at the back of this section with suggestions for your other four book reports. Some books are available for check out at FLC.

The reports are to be typed and double-spaced. Please follow the format below. (Please attach this sheet to front of your report.)
