

Valentine Board Game 1

START				Extra Turn!
Extra Turn!
				Spilled my Valentines. Go back 1 space.
Sent a Valentine. Go ahead 2 spaces			Bought flowers for Mom. Go ahead 2 spaces.

Happy Valentine's Day!

Fundamental Learning Center.

20 YEARS
Providing clarity and hope for kids with dyslexia

Valentine Board Game 2

The board is a grid of colored squares (purple, pink, and red) with various images and text boxes. A large purple arrow points from the left edge to the first square of the top row. The board contains the following elements:

- Top Row: A purple square with a large arrow pointing right; a pink square; a red square containing a basket of flowers; a purple square; a pink square; a red square; a purple square.
- Second Row: A purple square; a pink square; a red square containing the word "JOY" in colorful letters; a purple square; a pink square; a purple square.
- Third Row: A pink square containing the text "Dropped my Candy! Go back 2 spaces." and a purple arrow; a red square with a purple arrow; a red square with a purple arrow; a purple square containing the text "Extra Turn!"; a red square; a pink square.
- Fourth Row: A pink square; a red square containing a teddy bear; a purple square; a red square; a purple square containing the text "Valentine's Party".
- Fifth Row: A purple square; a pink square; a purple square; a pink square.

Fundamental Learning Center.

20 YEARS
Providing clarity and hope for kids with dyslexia

Valentine board game

Materials Needed:

Game pieces

Die

Words from Situation Learning

1. Roll die, student with the highest number can go first.
2. Player one reads a word, rolls die and takes a turn then moves ahead the number of spaces on the die.
3. Follow the directions on that square, or if blank, stay on that square.
4. Student who makes it to the Party first wins.

Fundamental Learning Center

20 YEARS
Providing clarity and hope
for kids with dyslexia